Beginning on January 1st, Chattanooga Police changed their policy on what types of car wrecks they will respond to.

If you were involved in a minor wreck without injuries, and your car can be driven from the scene - the police will not come.

It then becomes your responsibility to take pictures, exchange insurance information, and Call

New Chattanooga Police reporting policy

WG WARREN & GRIFFIN, P.C.
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Our law firm has been helping drivers involved in car wrecks for over thirty years, and we are worried about this new policy. Insurance companies are going to love this, and we fear your rates may raise if there is no police report proving fault in a wreck.

We are excited to announce our very first Podcast is now LIVE for you to watch or listen!

You can listen to "2 Marks, 1 Mic" on any podcast platform that you use.

The "Marks" will keep you informed on any changes in the law, how to stay safe on the road, and even what to do if your family dog gets run over.
